BYE-LAWS OF THE ASSOCIATION OF PERSONS - SAINIK SEVA SAMITI
Contents	Subject Matter of the Bye-Laws	Descriptive Text
Preliminary	1. Name of the Association	The name of the 'ASSOCIATION OF PERSONS' (AOP) shall be 'SAINIK SEVA SAMITI' (SSS).
	2. Applicability of Bye-Laws	The bye-laws as laid out in this document will be final and binding on all members of the SSS, having been accepted as read, understood and agreed for compliance at the time of seeking membership of the AOP.
	3. Approval and Effective date of Bye-Laws	These bye-laws, finalised and approved by a resolution of the founding members will come in to force on formation of the SSS and will be effective from the date of execution of the Agreement of the AOP.
	4. Amendments to Bye-Laws	The bye-laws, which contain all the rules and regulations pertaining to the functioning and conduct of the AOP, including the rights and duties of members, may be amended from time to time at General Body Meetings of the SSS and such additions, deletions and alterations are to be incorporated in the master copy of the bye-laws and updated progressively.
	5. Address of the Association	The address of the AOP will be as given in the Agreement of the AOP, which at inception is at 3-A, Siddhivinayak Chambers, Opposite MIG Cricket Club, Bandra (East), Mumbai - 400051.
	6. Procedure for changing the address of the Association	Due to any reason whatsoever, if the address of the AOP has to be changed to a different premises, necessary steps will be taken by the Board of Directors to make such amendments in the deed of AOP as per prevailing rules for such changes, and such changes will not warrant a majority approval of the General Body.

Interpretations	7. Interpretation of the words and terms	The AOP is the association formed by its notarised agreement and SSS refers to the name of the AOP, both terms may be used interchangeably and will mean the same in letter and spirit. 'General Body' is the collective term for all primary members of the AOP permitted to attend and vote at General Meetings (or e-voting processes) and contest elections to be a Director of the Board of the Association. 'Indian Armed Forces' would only mean and include the Indian Army, Indian Navy, Indian Air Force and Indian Coast Guard. 'Serving' would mean a commissioned officer currently in active service in the Indian Armed Forces. 'Retired' would mean any person who at any point in time and for any duration served in the Indian Armed Forces as a commissioned officer and is currently not in active service. The Board of Directors (BOD) means the governing body of the SSS in which the authority to manage the affairs of the SSS is vested. 'Office Bearers' would mean and include those Directors on the BOD who by mutual consensus have been nominated or elected as President, Secretary, and Treasurer (and also Vice President and Joint Secretary if so decided). The terms he/she, him/her will be used without any gender bias and where either is used, it will also mean the other and third gender. These bye-laws are synonymous with the rules of the SSS and both terms will have the same meaning and effect when used.

Area of Operation	8. Area of operation of the Association	The area of operation of the SSS will be bound by and within the sovereign territory of India and will be managed from Mumbai , it's principal place of business.
Agreement of the Association of People	9. Salient features and clauses	The vision of the founding members is for the SSS to engage in activities to be of benefit to both retired and serving officers of the Indian Armed Forces and their families. The SSS will be bound by the Deed of AOP which inter alia lays down the management principles, composition and term of the BOD, types of members and eligibility conditions, beneficiaries and benefits, fees and charges, creation and utilisation of funds, e-governance initiatives and resolving of disputes.
	10. Binding on all who seek membership	All founding members have consented and agreed to be governed by the terms and conditions laid out in the deed of the AOP. It will also be binding on all those who voluntarily seek and are granted membership of the AOP.
	11. Procedure and authority to amend	Due to any reason whatsoever, if the Agreement of the AOP has to be amended, necessary steps will be taken by the BOD to place such proposed amendments before the General Body of the SSS to seek a majority view, and if approved as proposed or with any changes, such amendments may be carried out as per prevailing rules for such changes. Notwithstanding the above, the maximum strength, service wise composition and reserved seats under specified categories in the BOD as laid down in the AOP will continue in perpetuity and will not be subject to any review or revision by the General Body. On all other matters specified in the AOP, the General Body will be the supreme authority to approve any proposed changes.

Aims and Objects	12. Aims and Objects of the Association	(a) Welfare activities beneficial to officers and families of the Indian Armed Forces. (b) To liaise with external agencies to support health, wellness and quality of life measures. (c) Any other initiatives as decided from time to time that finds common cause &amp; benefit.
Affiliations	13. Independence of AOP	The AOP/SSS will have no religious or political affiliations or any interest in such agendas whatsoever.
Service Grievances	14. No Matters Related to Services	The SSS or its activities will not be used as a platform to address grievances related to conditions of service or entitlements pertaining to serving or retired officers.
Board of Directors	15. Formation of First BOD by Founding Members	The SSS will be governed by a Board of Directors, first formed by and consisting of the founding members from the Indian Navy and such other appointed members from the Indian Army, Indian Air Force, Indian Coast Guard and any specialist fields. The BOD will function under the overall guidance and authority of the President.
	16. Term, Composition and Tenure of BOD & Directors	The term of the first BOD will run for a period of three years, after which a new BOD will be elected every three years by majority vote by the General Body, in a fair and transparent process. Total number of seats for Directors on the BOD will always be an odd number and restricted to a maximum of 23. Elected Directors on the BOD will be permitted to remain in office for a maximum of two consecutive terms, exception being allowed

		only to contest elections for further terms if there are no nominees to fill required number of seats under 'reserved categories' as enumerated below. The maximum age for a Director to continue on the Board will be 80 years.
	17. Reserved and Specialist categories on the Board of Directors	The BOD will have 03 seats for the Army, 02 seats for the Air Force, 01 seat for the Coast Guard and 03 seats for Specialists under 'reserved categories'; the remaining 14 seats would be filled by Indian Navy members. The President, Secretary and Treasurer will be from the Navy and should be residents of Mumbai (since their presence in station will be required for documentation, face to face meetings, representation of SSS before authorities, legal matters etc.) and as such, these 03 seats will also form a 'reserved category' within the BOD.
	18. Authority of the Founding members to nominate Directors as per reserved and specialist category on the Board of the Association	The founding members are vested with the authority to nominate and appoint such other members from the Army, Air Force and Coast Guard on the first BOD under the reserved category, as also any member(s) from specialist fields and such seats are to be filled within 03 months of formation of the BOD. Specialist members will always be nominated to the Board by the BOD and need not contest elections.
	19. Policy for rotational retirement of Board of Directors and Office Bearers for continuity and familiarity in management of operations	For sake of continuity and familiarity in management of the AOP, Directors and Office Bearers are permitted to retire in rotation (within the 03-year tenure of the Board and subject to a maximum of one-third of Directors retiring in each year) and elections to replace retiring Directors may be held during that year. The discretion to exercise this option is vested in the BOD. The term of such new members elected to the BOD to replace Directors retiring in rotation will run for 03 years and only remaining seats will be contested at the election to be held at 03 yearly intervals.

	20. Policy for appointment of Regional Directors	Directors on the BOD may also be appointed as Regional Directors by the President in consultation with the BOD/Office Bearers to oversee operations in allotted regions to cover all states of India. They will be the single point of contact (SPOC) for initiatives of the AOP, liaison with third parties, grievances of members, suggestions and feedback to the President of the BOD.
	21. Appointment of Office Bearers	The elected members to the BOD will appoint the Office Bearers by mutual consensus or majority vote subject to fulfilling conditions of the reserved category of President, Secretary and Treasurer being from the Navy and also residents of Mumbai.
	22. Committees and Working Groups	The President in consultation with the BOD or Office Bearers may appoint working groups or sub-committees comprised of such members and numbers as deemed necessary for efficient operations of the SSS.
	23. Day to Day Management	The day to day running of the SSS will be managed by the Office Bearers under the overall guidance of the President.
	24. Co-operation, Faithfulness, Conflict of interest	The BOD shall cooperate amongst themselves, be true and faithful to each other, have no conflict of interest and not do or cause to be done anything which may be detrimental to the interest of the AOP.
Bank Account, PAN &amp; GST	25. Operations and Compliances	A bank account shall be opened in a suitable reputed, financially and technologically sound bank in the name of 'Sainik Seva Samiti' and the same shall be operated jointly by the Treasurer, President and Secretary (any 2 of 3), whilst ensuring adequate provisions for efficient, cost-effective and seamless online e-banking operations and financial transactions.

		Additional bank accounts may be opened as necessary to spread funds and investments across banks for added safety of capital. The 'Sainik Seva Samiti' shall obtain PAN and GST numbers as applicable, to be in compliance with laws of India and may seek legal advice and professional services as required.
Creation of Funds, their Utilisation and Investment	26. Modes of raising of funds of the Association	The raising of funds by and for the SSS and modes will be as enumerated in the Deed of the AOP and these bye-laws.
	27. Corpus and Exigency Funds	The Corpus and Exigency Funds will be created from the admission fees collected from persons granted membership of the SSS. During the first 03 years of operation of the SSS, an amount not exceeding 25% of the collected admission fees may be set aside and accounted towards an Exigency Fund to cater for any unforeseen expenditure. The balance part, being not less than 75% of the collected admission fees will be accounted towards the Corpus Fund. The corpus will be judiciously invested in suitable government securities or bank fixed deposits and only interest accruing thereon less taxes may be used for furtherance of aims and objects of the AOP.
	28. Advance from Founding Members	The SSS will take a refundable advance from the founding members, who have mutually decided and agreed to individually contribute a sum of Rs 10,000 (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, to facilitate the initial setting up and administrative expenses of the AOP. This amount, sans any interest will be fully refunded to them and such refund will be effected on the founding member's resignation/departure from the BOD, on completion of tenure or any other reason.

	29. Registration and Admission Fees	Non-refundable online registration charge of Rs 500/- will be charged to all applicants towards administrative expense whilst registering on the SSS website. A onetime admission fee will be payable by all persons who voluntarily seek and are granted membership of the SSS. The rate for Primary and Associate members may be differentiated and will be as determined by the Founding Members or as revised by the General Body. At inception of the SSS, a uniform rate of Rs 500/- has been fixed by the founding members. The admission fees will be accounted towards the Corpus and Exigency Fund as is hereinabove enumerated.
	30. Annual Subscription	An annual subscription, determined initially by the BOD, will be payable by all members to ensure that the SSS is able to operate, exist and maintain itself. At inception of the SSS, the rate for annual subscription has been fixed at Rs 1000 per member (Primary or Associate) per year. The rate of subscription may be revised from time to time by the General Body.
	31. Investment and Expenses	The registration fee, admission fees and annual subscription collected from members of SSS shall be judiciously invested/utilised by the Board of Directors in keeping with the highest moral and ethical standards without any conflict of interest for furtherance of Aims and Objects of the AOP. Administrative expenses will include, but not be limited to hiring of office space and staff, office equipment, water and electricity, communication, internet, web hosting, stationery, travel and incidental expenses, professional fees paid to consultants, audit fees, registration charges for compliance with laws and income/goods &amp; services taxes as applicable.
	32. Grants, Loans, Financial	The AOP will not undertake to suggest or utilise any of its funds to grant any form of loans, Assistance	grants or financial assistance to any member or their families, however mitigating the effect will be on the circumstances of the case.

	33. Surplus Funds	Surplus funds may be utilised for any welfare activities as decided by the General Body.
Payments for Schemes and Benefits	34. Pass Through Income	In addition to registration fee, admission fees and annual subscription, the SSS may collect from its members monies for goods and services to be paid to third parties for schemes and benefits negotiated at group rates and voluntarily opted for by its members. These monies will be in the nature of pass through income and the SSS will bear no responsibility for quality of goods or services provided by third parties, except the guarantee of payment made on behalf of its members. The BOD is empowered to transfer such amounts to third parties without any financial limits or approval of the General Body.
Limit of Liabilities	35. Liabilities of the Directors and Members of the Association	The Directors or members of the AOP shall not be personally, jointly and severally liable for any or all liabilities arising in the course of carrying on the activities of the AOP in good faith, except where overridden by laws of the land.
	36. Director's Liability Policy	A Director's Liability Policy may be taken for protection against any eventualities.
Membership and Conditions for Membership	37. Eligibility and Conditions for individuals desiring to be members of the Association	Membership of the SSS will be granted to those who voluntarily apply and fulfil the condition of (a) either being a serving or retired officer of the Indian Armed Forces, (b) or their spouse, (c) or their married children, (d) or their children above 25 years of age (e) or their parents/parents-in-law (f) or such other persons as may be decided by the General Body (g) and

		'Sponsored Categories' whenever offer is open. Any person seeking membership has to satisfy the officials of the SSS of him/her meeting the eligibility conditions with documentary evidence failing which his registration shall be cancelled and registration fee paid shall be forfeited. The BOD, also reserves the right to seek additional documents to establish the credentials of applicants for membership. New members may be inducted to the SSS from time to time. Any fraudulent representation to gain membership or major breach of bye-laws/rules will result in cancellation of membership and all associated benefits acquired through or arranged by the Sainik Seva Samiti.
	38. Primary and Associate Membership	Officers or their spouse granted membership of the SSS will be 'Primary Members' with full voting rights and right to contest elections. Officers' married children and children above 25 years of age and any other person granted membership will be 'Associate Members' with no voting rights and no right to contest elections.
Benefits to Members	39. Benefits and Eligibility Conditions	Benefits of schemes, initiatives and welfare measures that may be undertaken by or organised through the SSS for its members may be extended to the following:- (a) Primary members, their spouse, unmarried children below 25 years of age, parents and parents-in-law and (b) Associate members, their spouse, unmarried children below 25 years of age, parents and parents-in-law. Extension of benefits will however be subject to restrictions, permissible inclusions and eligibility criteria of specific schemes which may be arranged by/through third parties and external agencies.

E-Governance	40. Demographics of Members	It is anticipated that members of the SSS will be spread across the length and breadth of India and it will be practically impossible to conduct the affairs of the SSS in a traditional sense by congregating at appointed place or physical presence at meetings.
	41. Use of Modern Technology	The SSS will make use of modern technologies in furtherance of e-governance like e-mail communications, secure digital financial transactions, paperless documentation, cloud storage of data, video conferencing, e-voting, web hosting of meetings, online surveys and such other measures as deemed appropriate to cater to its community of members with widespread demographics.
	42. SSS Website	A website of the SSS with domain name ssamiti.com will be hosted on the world wide web. The design and features of the website should cater for publicity of the SSS and its activities displayed on pages with universal access. Restricted pages with access only to members will cater for such matters and information internal to the SSS and only concerning the Association and its members. The website will be the interface between the members of the SSS and the organisation of the SSS in matters concerning its management, operations, finances, transparency, communications, records, archives and such other facilities afforded by technology to further e-governance. The website will also provide an embedded payment gateway with minimal transaction costs to enable online payments to the bank account of the SSS. Terms for use of the website and privacy policy will be mentioned prominently in the website.

Rights of Members	43. Right to get a copy of the bye-laws of the Association	A compiled handbook consisting of the bye-laws and all rules and regulations of the Sainik Seva Samiti and details of its members will be published from time to time either in print or in electronic form and made available to all members. It will supersede any other laws, rules and regulations that were previously in force.
	44. Inspection of Books and Records, Copies of Documents and Limitations Thereof	No facility of inspection of books and records by a member at the office of the AOP will be available due to its impracticability. However, a member, on request will be provided information related to the ledger page of his accounts in electronic form. No physical copies of documents will be made available to members.
	45. Transparency in Management, Financials and Decision Making	Transparency in management, financials and decision making will be provided by relevant information posted on the website of the SSS and will be available for perusal by members. Such documents will include the bye-laws, audited account statements of last three years along with audit/rectification reports, quarterly income & expenditure statement of running financial year, minutes of General Meetings and Meetings of the BOD (current and archived).
Resignation of Membership	46. Resignation of Membership	Any member may resign his membership of the SSS without giving any reason whatsoever, subject to having cleared all dues and rescinding all rights and benefits derived from or through membership of the SSS. Resignation is not to be accepted until all dues to the Association are fully paid

Responsibilities and Liabilities of Members	47. Adherence to the Deed, Bye-laws and Rules of the Association	All members will ensure strict adherence to the bye-laws and rules of the SSS and also follow in letter and spirit the terms and conditions of any schemes and benefits organised by the SSS or through third parties. The members shall cooperate amongst themselves, be true and faithful to each other, have no conflict of interest and not do or cause to be done anything which may be detrimental to the interest of the AOP or tarnish the image of the Indian Armed Forces.
Removal and Expulsion of Members	48. Grounds on which a member could be removed or expelled	A member may be expelled from the membership of the SSS, if such a member (a) has subsequently been discovered to be ineligible for membership (b) has produced fake or falsified documents to claim his eligibility for membership (c) has failed to pay the charges due to the SSS for a period of 01 year (d) has willfully deceived the AOP by giving false information to gain benefits (e) has willfully misused benefits or misbehaved whilst using the benefits of schemes arranged by or through the SSS and (f) has been in the habit of committing breaches of the bye-laws, which in the opinion of the BOD are of serious nature.
	49. Procedure for expulsion of a member	A member, against whom a prima facie case for expulsion is established by the BOD, will be issued a 'show cause notice' (e-notice by email) and given a period of 15 days to respond with facts and reasons as to why his membership should not be cancelled. All available facts and known circumstances of the case will be placed before the Ethics and Grievances Committee (as is hereinafter described), who will afford a dispassionate hearing to the member and communicate its decision to the BOD and member, which will be final and binding upon all concerned.
	50. Effect of expulsion on membership of	A member, whose membership is cancelled and thus expelled from the AOP, will lose all rights of a member including attendance at meetings,

	the Association	voting and contesting of elections. Further, such an erstwhile member or his beneficiaries will have no rights whatsoever to claim any benefits of activities undertaken by or through the SSS and all benefits from all enrolled schemes will stand withdrawn.
	51. Eligibility of the expelled member for readmission to membership of the Association	An expelled member may apply for readmission to the membership of the SSS subject to tendering a written apology for his past misdoings and undertaking to henceforth abide by the bye-laws and rules of the AOP. Such a request for readmission will only be taken up after a lapse of one year from his expulsion. In case of any break of membership due to any reason, and subsequent approval for readmission, membership renewal charges will be payable at 200% of then prevailing rates of admission fee or Rs 5000/- whichever is higher.
Cessation of Membership	52. Circumstances under which a person ceases to be a member of the Association	A person will cease to be a member of the AOP either on his voluntary resignation or expulsion with due process.
	53. Action by the Board on cases of cessation of membership of the Association	On cessation of membership due to resignation or expulsion, the BOD will take necessary steps to remove the name of such member and his/her beneficiaries from all membership records, schemes and benefits. In the event of unfortunate demise of a member, all benefits will continue to be enjoyed by the Primary or Associate member's beneficiaries and transfer of such membership will be offered to the spouse.
Duties and Powers of the BOD	54.
